VALUABLE INFORMATION FOR PERSONS ABOUT TO RETIRE

If you are retiring in the near future, you can speed the delivery of your first check by bringing all necessary evidence with you on your first visit to the district office, so sated John F. Pate, district manager of the Jackson social security office.

Almost everyone who applies for monthly benefits must prove his age. A birth certificate is the best evidence, but if not available, there are many other types of evidence which will prove age, such as baptismal certificate, insurance policy, family Bible, etc.

Evidence of recent earnings may also be needed to establish your monthly payment. The 1960 withholding tax statement (Form W-2) is the best evidence for an employee. The self-employed should bring copies of the two previous years' tax return and evidence to show that tax returns were filed with Internal Revenue Service. A cancelled check, money order stub, or bank receipt is sufficient evidence to show that the return was filed.

If married, and your wife is also applying for monthly benefits, evidence of her age will also be required.

Mr. Pate stated if you have any doubt about what evidence will be needed to process your claim, call the social security office before you retire and the representative will be glad to explain just what evidence you might need. If you have the necessary proofs when you apply for benefits, it will help speed up your first check.

Wharton Named Ambassador To Norway

WASHINGTON — President Kennedy Monday chose Clifford R. Wharton, a Negro career diplomat, to be ambassador to Norway.

Wharton, 61, is now minister to Romania and has been in the foreign service 34 years. As ambassador at Oslo, Wharton will hold the highest rank ever attained by a member of his race as a U. S. career diplomat.

Other Negroes have served as ambassadors, but they held their posts as political appointees.

Wharton's road to an ambassadorship has been the hard way. His first State Department job in 1925 was as a law clerk at $1,860 a year.

Three years ago, President Dwight D. Eisenhower named him minister to Bucharest. Prior to that appointment, Wharton had been consul general at Marseille, France.

In going up the ladder to his consul general's post, Wharton served at such points as Monrovia, Liberia; Las Palmas, Canary Islands; Tananarive, Madagascar; Ponta Delgada, Azores, and Lisbon, Portugal.

Wharton was born in Baltimore May 11, 1899.

He attended Boston University, received a law degree there in 1920 and practiced law in Boston before entering government service.

WILMA, BOSTON SNAP INDOOR WORLD MARKS

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Wilma Rudolph, the bronze beauty who is making a habit of setting world records, broke two in successive nights last week end.

The lithe and graceful sprinter from Tennessee A&I and a three gold medal winner in the 1960 Olympics, broke her own world mark in the 60 yard dash in 6.8 seconds to beat her own mark of 6.9 in the New York Athletic Club indoor track games in Madison Square Garden, Friday.

Then on Saturday night in Louisville, Ky., Wilma set her second world indoor mark, by streaking the 70-yard dash in 7.9 seconds in a preliminary heat at the first Mason-Dixon games.

In establishing the 70-yard record Miss Rudolph cracked by 3/10th of a second a record established way back in 1935 by Stella Walsh.

Sharing the spotlight with Miss Rudolph in the New York meet was her fellow school companion broad jumper Ralph Boston.

Boston, the world outdoor holder in the broad jump, was superb Friday as he jumped an incredible 26-1 3/4 to wipe out the existing world mark of 25-9 1/2 set by Bo Roberson a year ago.

HELP SOMEONE TODAY. Jesus and his disciples were going to Jerusalem, he was walking ahead of them, when he noticed how far they were behind him. In fear of what would happen to him (Jesus), he told them he would be condemned, denied and killed, but he will rise again. Whoever would be great among you must be your servant Matt. 20:26.
